

ROCKHURST
A Jesuit University

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing a letter to recommend Josh Baker for your Assistant Director of Student Life Sports position. I believe Josh's talents would be a good fit for your athletic department.

Josh has done an outstanding job as a graduate assistant in our athletic department for the past eight months. Most of his duties have been in assisting with the sports information department.

Josh has excellent written and verbal communication skills. He has coordinated all of our Live Streaming broadcasts, in addition to handling the play-by-play for our baseball and softball teams. He also written stories for our web site and helped with our social media responsibilities.

I have especially been impressed with Josh's ability to work with others and maintain strong relationships with our student-athletes and coaches. He played baseball for Rockhurst for four years prior to becoming our GA in the fall of 2014.

Josh is a strong self-starter and is a quick learner. He has a tremendous knowledge of college athletics and understanding our University functions. I think he will be a great asset for a college athletic department.

Sincerely,

John Dodderidge
